

America's Making to Go on a Tour of Other Large Cities

Czecho-Slovaks Present a Programme of Gymnastics and Folk Songs.

America's Making Exposition, which, with its pageants and collection of racial exhibits, has commanded wide attention since its opening last Saturday night in the Seventy-first Regiment Armory, may be transported bodily to Boston after its close here on November 12 and after an extended civic demonstration there, may be produced in Chicago and other cities.

The idea that this striking exposition of historical and civic development in America go on tour and be staged in other cities with local casts was advanced yesterday by Mr. Edward A. Filene, a merchant of Boston, who made the suggestion to Dr. John H. Finley, president of America's Making. He told Dr. Finley he was organizing a committee which would come to New York soon to view America's Making and consider the proposition of repeating it in Boston. He also announced that he would pay the expenses of a similar committee made up of citizens of Chicago who may visit the exposition in New York with a similar end in view.

Mr. Filene was present at the opening of America's Making and carried away a vivid impression. He is a director of the United States Chamber of Commerce, with whose delegation he was recently in Europe. What he saw abroad of dissection as compared with the exhibition in America led him to the decision to try to make the exposition a national event.

The Czecho-Slovaks, who claim the first Chief Justice of the United States as one of their blood and boast of having established America's first girls' seminary, had their night at America's Making last evening. A remarkable programme was presented by the group, including gymnastic exhibitions by men and women, a play, a musical, a colorful and striking performance by a band of Moravian dancers, and folk songs by a monster chorus.

The morning session of the exposition children of School Districts Nos. 12 and 14 appeared in a pageant. This forenoon a spectacle arranged by pupils of Bushwick High School of Brooklyn will be presented.

Mayor Hylan and Mr. Curran, the coalition candidate for Mayor, have promised to attend the demonstration and pageant by Americans of Irish lineage to-night in their campaign. Speaking engagements will give them a possible chance. Archbishop Hayes will preside. Under the direction of Col. Timothy J. Moynahan, chairman of the Exposition Committee of Americans of Irish lineage, elaborate preparations have been made to make "Irish Night" stand out as one of the notable of the exposition. It has been Col. Moynahan's purpose to demonstrate beyond question that the Americans of Irish lineage have not only done much to build up the country but that they continue to be a great force for progress.

The Archbishop will introduce Mr. W. H. Bourke, who is coming from Washington to speak on what the Irish element of the population of the United States has contributed to the upbuilding of America.

Miss Sherrerd engaged. Mr. and Mrs. William D. Sherrerd of the Orchard, Haddonfield, N. J., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Grace D. Sherrerd, to Mr. Henry David Pixley, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Pixley of Utica, N. Y. Mr. Sherrerd is a member of the banking firm of Sherrerd & Hansel of Philadelphia.

MRS. ABBOT MEREDITH WED TO MR. ALPHEUS M. GEER

Ceremony Performed in the Orangery of Garden Club, Pelham Bay Park.

The marriage of Mrs. Alice Louise Abbot Meredith, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Abbot of Pelham Manor, to Mr. Alpheus Montague Geer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alpheus Geer of Nutley, N. J., took place yesterday afternoon, in the orangery of the Garden Club, Pelham Bay Park. The ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. Dr. Lewis G. Lewis of Pelham Manor, was witnessed by relatives and a few friends, some of whom had motored from New York.

The bride, with her father passed through an aisle formed of white ribbons and held by some of her young relatives and friends, who included her cousin, Mrs. Robert Howard Gamble; Mrs. Vernon Radcliffe; Mrs. Gilbert Darlington; Miss Margaret Geer, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Dorothy Sanborn and Miss Eleanor Schuyler Mills.

The bride wore a gown of white and silver brocade made with a court train, the side being embellished with a fringe of orange blossoms and tiny oranges. Her veil, which had been worn by her mother, was of point d'agulle and pointed to the end of the train. The bride's only attendant was her small daughter, Mary Ruth Meredith, aged 8.

Mr. Alpheus Geer was best man for his son. The ushers were Messrs. Henry R. Walcott, Lawrence Austin, Russell Cobb, Dorr M. Thorne, Albert Treadwell, Jr., cousin of the bride and her two uncles, Frederick Roosevelt and Henry E. Loney. A small reception followed the ceremony. When Mr. and Mrs. Geer return from a wedding trip they will live in Pelham Manor.

Invitations have been sent out by Mrs. E. Kirkpatrick Beddall for the marriage of her daughter, Miss Adelaide Beddall, to Mr. S. Theodore Hodgman, Jr., which will take place on the afternoon of November 23 in St. James's Church, Madison avenue and Seventy-first street. Mrs. Clinton Gilbert, Jr.; Misses Miriam Morrison, Marguerite Danell, Edith Hodgman and Dorothy Hodgman will be the bridesmaids. Mr. Paul Fisk Willard will serve as Mr. Hodgman's best man. The ceremony will be followed by a small reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd B. Sanderson.
